

PYP Counselor: As an IB World School, ARIS believes that supporting students in counselling goes beyond academic and emotional support; but also, to offer students a personalized approach catered for their needs.

ARIS is looking for a Professional PYP school counselor to serve in the role of maximizing student achievement. As a Counsellors at ARIS, He or She will be expected to work with teachers in the classroom, running special programs like wellbeing session, setting goals, and developing strategies to tackle issues such as bullying.

As the school counsellor you will be expected to help students to explore feelings and emotions. As well as to establish a relationship of trust and respect with students