

EYP Coordinator:

The EYP Coordinator will be a whole school member, reporting to the HOS. He or She will be responsible for the academic care of students. He or She will be in charge of the pedagogical leadership and management of all aspects of learning and teaching for the Early Years Programme (Playgroup to Year 2), particularly those identified in the School's Strategic Plan.

The EYP Coordinator is a crucial link between the school and the IBO. He or she is expected to maintain a thorough understanding of all aspects of the Early Years Programme and actively endorse and promote the principles that underpin it. A commitment to collaborative planning is central to the philosophy of the EYP. The EYP coordinator has a crucial role in this process and will ensure that pedagogical and curriculum aspects are discussed, information is disseminated, and the programme is planned, taught and assessed collaboratively.

The EYP Coordinator will be an effective communicator who loves learning and is excited by this role's possibilities. He or She would see the academic care of every student as the highest priority and be committed to ensuring the most effective learning environment for all students- one that meets the needs of each individual. He or she will prove his or her versatile teaching ability. He or She will play a vital role in delivering the vision for education at Al Rayan International School. He or She will have effective leadership, management, communication and interpersonal skills and knowledge of the curriculum across all subject areas to ensure the highest possible educational outcomes for all classes and a smooth vertical alignment with the PYP programme.
