

IB/MYP Digital & Product Design Facilitator: An IB Facilitator should be an inspirational, passionate and adaptable educator with the ability to deliver an inquiry-based, trans-disciplinary programme. A facilitator of IB should be an outstanding teacher, motivator, learner and communicator, with excellent interpersonal skills, and should be capable of preparing students for international programmes in a stimulating, challenging and well-organised learning environment. Also, the IB teacher should be able to provide professional expertise, high quality teaching and learning, make effective use of resources and ensure high standards of learning and achievement for all students.

A graduate Digital & Product Design subject specialist preferably with a teaching certification. A minimum of three years IB teaching experience. Experience with teaching any of the IB Programmes will be an asset. Dedication to the job, subject-specific expertise, student centred teaching approaches, the ability to apply differentiation in the classroom, effective classroom management as well as good relations with students, staff and parents are the qualities sought.