

PYP Coordinator:

The PYP Coordinator will be a member of the whole School, reporting to the HOS. He or She will be responsible for the academic care of students, and will be in charge of the pedagogical leadership and management of all aspects of learning and teaching in the primary school (Nursery to Year 6), particularly those identified in the School's Strategic Plan.

The PYP Coordinator is a crucial link between the school and the IBO. He or she is expected to maintain a thorough understanding of all aspects of the Primary Years Programme and actively endorse and promote the principles that underpin it.

A commitment to collaborative planning is central to the philosophy of the PYP.

The PYP coordinator has a crucial role in this process and will take responsibility for ensuring that pedagogical and curriculum aspects are discussed; information is disseminated, and the programme is planned, taught and assessed collaboratively.

The PYP Coordinator will be an effective communicator who loves learning and is excited by the possibilities that this role holds. He or She would see the academic care of every student as the highest priority and be committed to ensuring the most effective learning environment for all students – one that meets the needs of each individual. He or she will prove his or her versatile teaching ability.

He or She will play a vital role in delivering the vision for education at Al Rayan International School. He or She will have effective leadership, management communication and interpersonal skills, along with knowledge of the curriculum across all subject areas, to ensure the highest possible educational outcomes of all classes.
