MYP Design Facilitator

Farah Abdul Wahab is a graphic designer with a Masters Degree from Alba-University of Balamand, Lebanon. She discovered her love for teaching when she headed and lectured the Graphic Design Department at Radford University College, East Legon, in 2010.

During her 9 years of experience with Radford University College, she succeeded in shaping the department to be one of the best design schools in Ghana, winning more than 20 awards in the Graphic Design Awards Ghana and Africa between 2015 and 2019 in all categories!

In addition, her students from Radford won the "Best Overall Graphic Designer" title in 2015, 2017, and 2019.

She believes that helping students to get their creative side out will equip them with the right skills for the future!
