

Primary (PYP) Facilitator

A Primary Facilitator should be an inspirational, passionate and adaptable educator with the ability to deliver an inquiry-based, trans-disciplinary programme. A facilitator of the PYP should be an outstanding teacher, motivator, learner and communicator, with excellent interpersonal skills, and should be capable of preparing students for international programmes in a stimulating, challenging and well-organized learning environment. Also, the PYP teacher should be able to provide professional expertise, high quality teaching and learning, make effective use of resources and ensure high standards of learning and achievement for all students.

He/She should:

- Design and develop a challenging and inquiry-based curriculum that aligns with educational standards and encourages student exploration.
- Integrate real-world applications and cross-disciplinary connections into lesson plans.
- Deliver interactive and student-centered lessons, utilizing a variety of teaching methods to accommodate diverse learning styles.
- Provide timely and constructive feedback to support student learning and improvement.
- Incorporate technology into lessons to enhance learning experiences.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree in Education, or a related field.
- A minimum of three years teaching experience in a reputable institution is preferred
- A graduate subject specialist with a teaching certification.
- Experience with teaching the IB Primary Years Programme will be a requirement
- Passion for working with students and fostering their creativity.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.

Qualities:

Dedication to the job, the ARIS core values, subject-specific expertise, student centred teaching approaches, the ability to apply differentiation in the classroom, effective classroom management as well as good relations with students, staff and parents are the qualities sought.

